

- a vignette of the master plan is shown, focused on the proposed community garden area
- stakeholders felt the infrastructure of the garden could be built by the county, and then the public is responsible for the upkeep of their individual lot in the garden
- parking is presented in two phases. The first phase is colored in to differentiate it from the 2nd phase (white outline).